

Isaiah 7:10-25
Getting Our Attention

The Sign (10-17)

Testing God (Deuteronomy 6:16)

By foolish actions (Matthew 4:7)

By disobedience (Psalm 95:9-10)

Two fulfillments

Isaiah's son (Isaiah 8:3-4)

God's son (Matthew 1:20-21)

Two dreaded kings

Rezin of Damascus (Aram) and Pekah of Samaria (Ephraim)

Russia and Iran (Ezekiel 38 &39)

The Shaving (18-25) – being brought to the brink of disaster (II Timothy 4:14-18)

Occupation – the land has been taken over (Exodus 33: 5-6, 15-16)

Oppression – living under siege (Judges 10:11-16)

Our sustenance – God provides for His remnant (Matthew 6:33-34)

Only thorns and briars – land becoming desolate

Sin of commission (Leviticus 18:28)

Sin of omission (Leviticus 25:2-5 / James 4:17)

Discussion questions for Isaiah 7:10-25

What signs has God offered us as warnings of coming judgment? (Matthew 24)

In what ways can we test God? (Hebrews 10:26-31)

Why is it difficult to accurately interpret prophetic events? (I Peter 1:10-12)

Why should we never compromise or turn from God, even when the circumstances are overwhelmingly against us? (Romans 8:31-34)

Why does God allow things to get so bad, that people lose hope? (Revelation 7:9-10)

What can help us regain our hope? (Titus 2:11-14)

What are some examples of sins of omission? How do they impact our lives? Our church?