

Isaiah 9:8-21 (10:1-4)
His Anger Remains

Rezin's (Aram) foes are strengthened – he has no allies (8-12)

Message is unheeded (Luke 13:34)

Making plans to rebuild – not repent (Galatians 2:18)

Mouth of the enemy will devour (Ephesians 4:29) or (Proverbs 12:18/Romans 3:13/James 4:8)

Refusing to return to God (13-17)

Struck down yet not seeking help

Speaking lies – they are blind guides (Luke 6:39 / II Timothy 3:13)

Seeing into all people – everyone has become ungodly (Proverbs 26:20-22)

Speaking what is vile (Matthew 12:33-37)

Righteousness is replaced by wickedness (18-21)

Burning like a fire (James 3:6)

By the wrath of God, the land will be scorched (I Corinthians 3:11-15)

Brother against brother – they will not be satisfied (I Corinthians 12:21-26)

Rulers making unjust, oppressive laws (10:1-4)

Depriving the poor of their rights (James 1:27)

Disaster is coming (Revelation 19:15-18)

Discussion questions for Isaiah 9:8-21

Why are we reluctant to change? (Mark 8:34-38 / Hebrews 12:11-14 / John 5:39-40)

What happens when we practice deceit? (II Timothy 3:1-9)

Why does God judge people? (Psalm 76:10 / Leviticus 26:14-22 / Hebrews 12:4-11 / Malachi 3:2-5)

Where do you see the USA in regard to the above practices?

Personal reflection: Where am I reluctant to change? When do I practice deceit?