

Isaiah 11:10-16
A Banner for the Nations

Root of Jesse (10-11) – the coming Messiah

Rallying the nations

Invited to the feast of Tabernacles (Zechariah 14:16)

Israel becomes the head, no longer the tail (Deuteronomy 28:12-13)

Resting place that shall be glorious

Security and satisfaction (Isaiah 65:20-25)

Souls at rest now as we wait (Matthew 11:28-30)

Reclaiming the remnant – He always saves a remnant

For the second time

First scattering (Leviticus 26:33-35 / Jeremiah 29:10)

Second scattering (Luke 13:34-35 / Matthew 24:1-2)

From the nations of the world – the gathering as a nation in 1948

Reuniting (12-16)

Scattered people of Judah (Leviticus 26:33-35 / Deuteronomy 28:36-37; 64-65)

Sticks rejoined (Ezekiel 37:15-23)

Safe passage

He removes barriers (Ephesians 2:14-16 / Colossians 2:13-14)

He sees us safely home (Philippians 1:6)

Discussion questions for Isaiah 11:10-16

What are two different ways that Jesus draws all men unto Himself? (Psalm 2:8-12 / Zechariah 14:16-19 / John 3:13-15) As leader of the world with absolute authority, all nations will be in submission to Him. As our Savior, He offers us the opportunity to become part of His family.

What does it mean to find rest in Jesus? (Psalm 62:5-8 / John 14:1-4 / Hebrews 4:10-11)
I can put all my trust in Him, nothing else will satisfy or meet my needs. I can count on Him, He has gone ahead of us and is preparing a place for us. I can allow Him to have control over my life that I might live for Him, resting in the power of His finished work and His work in my life.

Why does nothing else satisfy? (Psalm 95:7-11 / Ecclesiastes 5:10)
Putting my trust and effort into things apart from God = turning my back on Him. If things are not right in my relationship with God, then nothing else will satisfy the longing of my heart. I cannot do anything apart from Him (John 15:5). Pursuing the things of this world will leave me empty, for it is not the purpose for which I was created.

Why is the birth of Israel in 1948 so significant to biblical prophecy? (Daniel 9:27 / Zechariah 12:2-3 / Ezekiel 37:11-14)
Biblical prophecy requires a nation for the antichrist to make a treaty with. It requires a temple to defile. And it requires a capitol (Jerusalem) to be besieged by all the nations of the world. The return of Israel to their own land and the establishment of Jerusalem as their capitol sets the stage for the final chapters of biblical prophecy to be completed.

What can remove the barriers allowing relationships to be restored? (Philippians 2:1-4 / Romans 12:4-5 / Ephesians 4:31-32)
The CROSS. Knowing what I have received from Jesus, I am required to share the same blessings with others. Knowing what I deserve from Jesus makes me humble and willing to serve others. Knowing that I am completely forgiving makes it possible for me to forgive others.
