John 2:1-11
Water Turned into Wine

Setting: The timing: On the 3rd day (Genesis 22:4 / Hosea 6:2 / Matthew 16:21)
             The place: Cana of Galilee – a small town near Nazareth (Isaiah 55:9)
             The event: a wedding – a week-long celebration
             The invitation: for Jesus, His mother, and His disciples

Situation: The resources are depleted – no more wine (I Thessalonians 4:13)
             The request – will you help?
             The response:
                     Woman – a term of respect, but not submission
                     What is that to Me?
                     Waiting for the proper time (I Timothy 4:6 / John 7:6)

Solution: Servants – do whatever He tells you (Romans 10:9)
             Stone jars:
                     For ceremonial washing (Revelation 22:14)
                     Filled to the brim (20 to 30 gallons)
                     For the master of the banquet

Surprise: Tasting of the water turned to wine
                     Source not revealed (Ephesians 1:18)
                     Servants knew
             The best was saved for last (Mark 7:37)

Sign: The first miracle
                     Done in seclusion
                     Delivering joy
                     Demonstrating the New Covenant
             The revealing of His glory (Ecclesiastes 3:11 / Isaiah 42:8)
             The disciples put their faith in Him (Psalm 40:4)
