Discussion questions for Revelation 19:11-21

How should we respond to a faithful and true Savior? (Psalm 29:1-2 / Proverbs 3:5-6 / Colossians 3:23 / II Corinthians 1:20) I know that I can trust Him. He alone is worthy of my honor. It is always worth it to serve Him in everything I do. I can hope in His promises with a certain hope.

Why is it not our place to judge? (Matthew 7:1-5/John 5:22-23/Romans 2:1-3/Jms. 4:11-12) I risk facing Judgment because I cannot see clearly. All judgment has been entrusted to Jesus – no one else is qualified. I am guilty myself; how then can I objectively pass judgment on someone else.

What is the significance of HIS NAME? (Exodus 3:14/Matthew 1:21/Acts 4:12; 5:41/Philippians 2:9-10/Judges 13:18) YHVH – He is the I AM. Only in His Name can salvation be found, for His Name, Yeshua, means salvation. His Name is above all other names, and every knee will confess that Name and bow before Him. His Name is Wonderful, it is beyond our comprehension.

If I have a will, how does my will impact God? Myself? (Ephesians 4:30/Proverbs 21:30/Romans 12:1/Hebrews 12:7-11) I can grieve Him by my choices when I ignore His presence and power in my life. But I cannot thwart His purpose and plan no matter what I do. I can surrender my will to Him and live as He desires or I can be disciplined as His child in order to bring me back in line with His will.

What blessings can come from taking this passage to heart? (Isaiah 33:6/Jude 14-15/Titus 2:14/Psalm 64:5-10/Romans 10:1-4) Seeing who He truly is I can gain the blessing of understanding what it means to fear Him. I can recognize that I will ride with Him out of heaven when He come – which helps me now to focus on the blessed hope, when He returns to take me to be with Him (before the TRIB) I can rejoice that wickedness will one day be judged in righteousness. I am motivated to share Christ with other, that they might be spared from this judgment.
